Visual Information = Low: The only illustration is a map shows location of mysteries discussed.

In spite of the title, this book does not refer to a single UFO case. Rather, it is a collection of UFO and paranormal stories collected by the author in his years of journeying in the Far East. Most of these claims are new to us. Each story is 2-3 pages and is mostly anecdotal. The focus is on ancient mysteries that supposedly imply alien contact. Easy and fun to read. Covers China, Tibet, Mongolia and Japan.

Publisher's Synopsis

Like his predecessor, Heinrich Harrer, who spent seven years in Tibet, Hartwig Hausdorf has ventured, virtually on foot, over many of the sacred places of the Far East. But his aim has been not to discover his own soul, but rather to uncover tell-tale traces of an Alien Mind which may have passed that way millennia ago, and may be passing by again. He has sought out the fabled, forbidden 1,000-foot White Pyramid of Xian. In so doing, he has stumbled upon the key to the ancient Chinese dream of material immortality, a dream inspired by Alien Mind, and a key hidden in the fabulous, mercury-filled tomb-chamber of the Emperor Shi Huangdi--a tomb-chamber the excavation of which the Chinese government has kept secret from the West. He has unearthed new facts about the mysterious stone disks of Bayan Kara Ula, which some believe tell the story of a forced alien landing 12,000 years ago. And he has discerned, in the prodigious mind-over-matter techniques of the Tibetans, the Chinese and the Japanese, the faintest whispers, still audible over the vast gulf of time, of an awesome encounter which may have taken place on the sacred peak of Mount Meru in the very beginning of time.

About the Author

Hartwig Hausdorf was born in Fuerstenfeldbruck, Germany, in 1955. A graduate of Munich Technical School, he began a career in tourist management by escorting tourists to China and the Far East. These trips whetted his appetite for the study of ancient oriental artifacts. Combining this interest with a long-time passion for the paranormal, he undertook a second career in journalism, using as subject matter knowledge from these two fields.

In the early 1990s, Hausdorf became the first Westerner to obtain permission to enter the 'forbidden zone' just south of Xian, the ancient capital of China, long rumored to contain dozens of giant pyramids. He was able to confirm the existence of these structures, perhaps 20 in all close to Xian, with indications of 80 others scattered throughout China. Making use of this and material obtained from his other trips, Hausdorf, who also manages a travel agency in Burghausen, has written numerous articles for periodicals in Germany, Holland, the U.K. and Australia, and four books, The White Pyramid, The Pre-Astronauts, When Gods Play God (with Peter Krassa) and Back from the Beyond: The Mysterious Phenomenon of Reincarnation. These books have enjoyed great popularity in the German-speaking countries. A number of translations have appeared, or are soon to appear, in Dutch, Japanese, Polish, Hungarian, Bulgarian, Czech and Slovak. THE CHINESE ROSWELL (The White Pyramid) is the first of Hausdorf's books to appear in English. It should enjoy as much popularity in the U.S. as it does in Europe.
