Comparison to Other Books

On the surface, resembles Leah Haley's Lost Was The Key, but Wilson's book appears to be much more detailed.

Information from the Publisher

Always supportive

From the Book Cover

"If the aliens can learn from any of us, what they can learn from Katharina is of the highest importance. Anyone lucky enough to know her or to read her book will know exactly what I mean."

-- Budd Hopkins

Enter the surreal world of alien visions, teaching dreams, theatrics, camouflage, spontaneous memories, and shadows of military and government activity.

The Alien Jigsaw may never be surpassed for its ability to communicate almost perfectly the exactly emotional reaction of a human trapped in an alien setting. I can't recommend a book on the subject of UFOs more highly than this one."

-- Arcturus Books, Inc.

The Alien Jigsaw contains 61 illustrations & photographs, and over one hundred carefully documented experiences covering information about the abduction phenomenon that has never before been published.

"Abductions by strange beings -- whoever that are and wherever they are from -- the phenomenon is on the rise. Worldwide, we are observing an increasing number of people who are confronted with unusual and often very frightening experiences. The Alien Jigsaw is a necessary and important book. It will help abductees deal with their confusion and pain. It will help researchers to recognize the many facets of a phenomenon that is not very well understood, and it will provide the reader a confrontation with the unbelievable. The 'unbelievable' has already set its foot upon the Earth, and it is our responsibility to find out what or who it is, and why they are here. This book is one of the first steps in the right direction."

-- Dr. Johannes Fiebag (Germany), Author of Kontakt.

"Wilson's experiences cross section the complex range of physical, psychological and spiritual phenomena associated with such encounters, and displays a good mix of generality and specificity regarding her discoveries in each of these domains."

-- Richard Cutting, Strategic Communications
