Clarke's first full-length novel, is a diverting story of a science fiction writer's adventures aboard a spaceship making its maiden flight to Mars , the new frontier of the human race. By the time of his visit to the planet, a well-established colony of people from Earth are living in domed cities. He discovers that a vast secret project is under way to make the forbidding planet habitable for man, and he finds also the answer to one of the greatest riddles of science: Is there native life on Mars?"
