Aztec	UFO Crash at Aztec: A Well-Kept Secret (new hc) By William Steinman and Wendelle Stevens. 1986, UFO Photo Archives, 625pp. (Fine in fine DJ, in original shrink-wrap packaging. Multiple copies. Unnumbered "first edition".) This book resurrects the Aztec, New Mexico, UFO crash of 1948, which first publicized in "Behind the Flying Saucers" in the 1950s and then dismissed as a hoax. The authors claim new information -- and document it in 612 rambling pages. The book makes the claim that the remains of the craft and 16 deceased alien humans were immediately recovered by a special military team. In the end the book is neither very persuasive nor credible, but it is an interesting addition to the body of crash-retrieval mythology. Buried in this volume is a lot of information, some useful, some not. Maps and	$24.95 book4 Add to cart

It even contains what appears to be the first published mention of Area 51 in connection with UFOs. -- TM Jacket text - Farmington/Aztec UFOs
UFOphoto1 Cover Image 	UFO Photographs from Around the World, Vol. 1 (new hc) By Wendelle Stevens and August Roberts. 1986, UFO Photo Archives, 255pp. (Fine in fine DJ) A collection of 130 UFO photographs (all black-and-white) along with descriptions of their circumstances and line drawing of the craft seen. Although the quality of the photos is limited in this B+W format, there is much more explanation of each photo than you find in other books. (Other books will show you a glossy color photo but tell you nothing about it was supposedly taken.) The photos mostly show hovering disks with distinct features, with landscape background to judge them by, taken between 1952 and 1978. They could all be fake for all we know, but the stories that accompany them are still very interesting. With its report-like typeface and occasional typos, the book conveys an air of authenticity and earnestness. -- GC. - UFO Photographs (3/26/99)	$19.95 book1 Add to cart
