Free Energy

EnergyKeely	Free Energy Pioneer: John Worrell Keely (new trpb) By Theo Paijmans 1999, Illuminet Press, 472pp. "Over a century ago Philadelphia inventor John Worrell Keely made the most important discovery of all time: a source of unlimited, everlasting energy. quarter of a century he experimented with this force. He built a staggering 2,000 machines and devices that ran on the energy he had discovered. More than a century ago he experimented with antigravity, and contemporary accounts state that he found a solution. Others claim to have witnessed how he disintegrated solid substances with the help of his esoteric force. A company was established and funded with $5,000,000 in capital to support him. Many came to know of his discovery and witness his demonstrations, including Nikola Tesla, Jules Verne and Thomas Edison. The occult underground reverberated when they learned of his discovery. Theosophical society founder Madam Blavatsky and the founder of the anthroposophical movement, Rudolf Steiner, wrote and lectured on his mysterious energy. Early science fiction still owes a debt to him and his work. The name of the enigmatic inventor: John Worrell Keely. He was one of the world's first and foremost free energy pioneers."
