Explanation of Ratings

Credibility = Very High: In general, this category is a rating of the author's intellectual discipline and the strength of his argument (which are very high), not the veracity of his claims (which could be false in spite of the strong argument).

Kevin Randle methodically cuts the MJ-12 documents to shreds, along with their most vocal supporter, Stanton Friedman. Drawing on the work of several researchers, this short but fascinating document is the most devastating blow to the credibility of the alleged presidential briefing documents. Randle makes no secret of who he thinks faked them: Bill Moore. While Randle is not alone in this suspicion, no other document more clearly shows Moore's possible opportunity and motivation. Don't let yourself get hooked on the MJ-12 documents until you read this report. -- Glenn Campbell
