ChiGangWars_	Chicago Gang Wars of the Roaring Twenties Illustrated (used booklet) By unstated. 1931 (1980?), unstated publisher, 64pp, magazine-style booklet, 11x8.5". B+W newspaper photos throughout, a modern reprint of a vintage publication. (VG) An undated, magazine-style publication showing no author name and no publisher. In a series of illustrated articles, the Chicago gang wars of the Prohibition Era are described, including the St. Valentine's Massacre, Al Capone and various gangsters. Appears to be a modern reprint of a vintage tabloid publication. Capone is mentioned as still the reigning mob chief, so the text was written before his successful prosecution on tax evasion charges. Murders as spoken of as recent and there are no dates mentioned later than 1930. The price on the cover is $10.00, so this printing was probably in the 1980s or 1990s. An interesting contemporaneous account of the the gang wars.	$10.00 book1 Add to cart
