Our Focus

The Kind of Books We Carry

The books offered in our catalog are intended to mirror the subjects in our main website. The bookstore is intended to provide additional sources of information on the topics we cover. At present, the kind of books we carry in the catalog include...

1. Books that makes specific claims about UFOs and alien life. We try to carry all the books we can find in this category, regardless of their credibility.

Two Exceptions: We do not try to stock every "contactee" book. These are books by people who claim to have been in psychic or physical contact with aliens but offer no significant evidence. We also do not try to stock every "personal theory" UFO book. In these, an individual offers their own theory to explain UFOs, usually based on their religion or ideology, again without much evidence. The trouble with these books is that there are too many of them, and they are difficult both to sell and to classify on our website. We carry a few of these books but do not actively pursue them.

2. Paranormal books that make specific claims or that are easy to categorize on our website. Our preference is for books that try to evaluate paranormal claims within a scientific framework, but we will carry any paranormal book in which the claims are solid enough that they can eventually be proven true or false.

Exception: We do not usually carry books that are mainly spiritual or that make no testable earthly claims.

3. Books on unexplained creatures (Bigfoot, etc.)
4. Books of UFO or paranormal skepticism.
5. Religious books that make specific, testable claims or that strike us as amusing. Our main interest is in claims of modern miracles rather than ancient ones.
6. Books of religious skepticism.
7. Books about unsolved mysteries, even where there are no paranormal claims. (e.g. unexplained disappearances).
8. Local mysteries, ghosts and oddities, filed by location in our place section.
9. The best travel guides. (Ones that we use ourselves when travelling.)
10. The best maps and atlases for places that interest us, including detailed USGS topographic maps.
11. History books, mainly used. We are especially interested in modern history (WWII and later).
12. Books about Nevada and the Mojave Desert (where we are based).
13. Easy-to-read philosophy and psychology books.
14. Novels and movies that we happen to like.
15. Humor that we think is truly funny, and any "serious" book that is so absurd or outdated that it makes us laugh.
16. Used books in any of the categories above, as well as many others. (Anything interesting we happen to stumble across.)
