From the Book Cover

Earth has been visited by aliens from beyond our galaxy. They are observing us now... and they will return again soon! This is the astounding message brought to the screen in Mysteries of the Gods. Based on the best-seller by Erich von Daniken, this film travels to every corner of the Earth bringing fresh and shocking proof that extra-terrestrial life exists and has been here before. Who are these outer space beings? NASA scientists photograph them, archeologists find evidence of their voyages, thousands of people experience encounters.

Here is a motion picture that blends science fantasy with fact. A crystal skull that no human tool could have carved, ancient astro-landing strips, unpublished NASA photos of UFOs. This and more is the proof that makes von Daniken's frightening theory now so believable... because it's true! Mysteries of the Gods will make even the hardened skeptic look to the skies with a new and terrifying thought: They have been here before... when will they come again?
