Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

A book that feeds a market need for juicy tidbits about the X-Files star. Unfortunately, there isn't much to tell, since Anderson lucked into her role not long after graduating from college. The "unauthorized" label is mostly hype. We scanned the book for revelations and found no big surprises. For those who have a crush on Scully, this book could help dispell the mystique.

Reservations

We don't understand the public's insatiable interest in the private live actors and actresses, who mainly recite other people's lines and aren't nearly as interesting as the characters they portray.

From the Book Cover

The star of The X-Files: X-posed!

She graces magazine covers from coast to coast. She is worshipped as a goddess on the internet. Her portrayal of The X-Files's Dana Scully has garnered her worldwide adulation, success, and an Emmy nomination. But who is the real Gillian Anderson?

Hear the truth from those who knew her: as a struggling actress in New York, as a young punk rocker in London, as a television superstar -- and working mother -- on the set of The X-Files. Go behind the scenes with The Anderson Files -- the truth is here.
