Our Review Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

Credibility	Research Value	Cultural Interest	Visual Information	Style	Silliness	Wow Factor	Bargain

Explanation of Ratings

Credibility = Low: In general, this category is a rating of the author's intellectual discipline and the strength of his argument (which are low), not the veracity of his claims (which could be true in spite of the weak argument).

Silliness = Very High: High silliness isn't necessarily a bad thing. Such items often make amusing gifts or may be interesting as cultural artifacts.

The only part of this book we have read is the section on Area 51, which is so rife with errors that we have no interest in reading further. In Randles' map, Area 51 is north of Highway 375, not south like it should be, and there seems to be a factual error in every paragraph.

Reservations

Randles's research leaves much to be desired.

Comparison to Other Books

Books by Timothy Good, Jacques Vallee, Jerome Clark, Kevin Randle (no relation) and others are much more credible. At least those authors get the confirmable facts right. Try The UFO Book, Above Top Secret or A History of UFO Crashes,

Information from the Publisher

Always supportive

From the Book Cover

Have UFOs crashed-landed on our planet? Have remains of these craft and those of their alien crews been recovered and hidden away? Is solid evidence of this being suppressed? Are alien craft being built and flown today in the Nevada desert?
