Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

Credibility	Research Value	Cultural Interest	Visual Information	Style	Silliness	Wow Factor	Bargain
2	1	3	0	1	5	1	1
Low	Very Low	Moderate	None	Sloppy	Very High	Boring	Very Low

Explanation of Ratings

Credibility = Low: In general, this category is a rating of the author's intellectual discipline and the strength of his argument (which are low), not the veracity of his claims (which could be true in spite of the weak argument).

Silliness = Very High: High silliness isn't necessarily a bad thing. Such items often make amusing gifts or may be interesting as cultural artifacts.

Bargain = Very Low: In general, items with a low bargain rating are not considered worth the retail price as judged by the useful research data they contain. However, they may have cultural or entertainment value, which is not included in the bargain rating.

Philosophical ramblings of an alleged government insider. This book will leave you scratching your head. The information content is almost zero, supposedly because the author does not want to reveal the Top Secret information he has been exposed to. Why write a book if you are not going to say anything?

Comparison to Other Books

This is one of the few books that makes Corso's Day After Roswell look good. At least Corso made a few specific claims.

Publisher's Synopsis

Stroll through time and space; reason with the spirituality and creation of man. Understand the love of family; experience joy, sorrow, laughter, faith, and hope, those qualities which may be unique to the "human equation." Question, reason, and perhaps agree with the theories on cloning a man, UFO investigations, alien contact, and abduction experiences, however fictional in nature.

This well-written thought-provoking book will introduce you to an exciting new genre of written communication in which Dr. Michael Wolf addresses the topics of art, science, and religion. His three decades of patriotic duty to man and country, his vast knowledge and education, and his gentle manner of communicating his ideas encourage an understanding of the connection between time and space; the continuing creation of the universe; the impact of environmental hazards on this biosphere; and, most importantly, his work with and for the government.

As a memorial to his son, Dr. Wolf is creating The Daniel Wolf Memorial Foundation for Children, Inc., a nonprofit organization designed to help ensure a viable future for children, the hope and future of the world. He will donate all royalties to this institution.

"The Catchers of Heaven is more than the breathtaking story of a government scientist who encountered extraterrestrial beings and, through these encounters, learned to LOVE--it is an extremely beautiful, consciousness-expanding book, a piece of tomorrows world literature, which opens gateways into a new reality."

--Michael Hesemann
Cultural Anthropologist
Award-winning film producer
Editor of Magazine 2000
Author of The Cosmic Connection and Beyond Roswell

About the Author

Dr. Wolf, Chancellor Emeritus of the New England Institute for Advanced Research, maintains memberships in The New York Academy of Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the latter as a patron member. He currently resides in Connecticut, where he writes and continues his work on a variety of projects.

Regarding "The Catchers of Heaven: A Trilogy" - Latest First

Quality of research?

The name-calling in the above exchanges is a childish reaction that does nothing but reflect poorly on its author. Furthermore, I've seldom seen such a mishmash of assumptions which are intended to support an argument. How about using facts or evidence to support an argument?

The Daniel Wolf Memorial Foundation for Children, Inc.

I am led to believe that a certain person has either explicitly stated or led others to believe that the Foundation is not legitimate. This is untrue. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization and all donations are tax-deductible. For more info, please contact via email.

Support of Marge Haller Apropos Wolf Degrees

I produce Cosmos Chronicles, a UFO news show on cable t.v.in Pittsburgh.I read Catchers of Heaven 10/96.I know Ms. Haller well.She visited Wolf in Hartford.She is NOT LYING! She saw authentic calligraphied McGill and MIT diplomas on his Hart- ford walls plus photos of Wolf's dead wife.Friedman ignored Wolf's brother but quotes Wolf's estranged sister. NO HOAX!
