Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

A biography of the clairvoyant by the journalist who knew him best. Cayce was a psychic known for his trance readings, especially on the medical conditions of people far away. Being written by a Cayce partisan, it is likely to be biased in his favor, but the book also appears to contain a lot of useful biographical information. This is probably the first book to read on Cayce and his claims. -- Glenn Campbell
