From the Book Cover

For 50 years, thousands of people have been seeing "flying saucers." Have they all been fools and lunatics? Or is that just a way of dismissing the testimony of people who have seen something they shouldn't? The government is covering up something, but it isn't alien spacecraft in a hangar! Kanon reveals the truth and horror of The Great UFO Hoax and lays waste to disinformation efforts of the military-industrial complex.

- Why have reports of crashed UFOs and "little bodies" come primarily from "former" military officers?
- Why have these officers not been imprisoned - or worse - for violating security oaths and breaching national security?
- Why did General Douglas MacArthur, forty years ago, assert that Earth would be invaded by beings from another world, and why have world leaders and military higher-ups been repeating this pronouncement ever since?
- Why do most Americans prefer an extraterrestrial explanation of UFOs?

The Great UFO Hoax is a no-holds-barred expose' and reveals for the first time startling facts supported by newspaper accounts, recently declassified government documents, and scientific reports.

Gregory M. Kanon is a writer, artist, and psychotherapist. He is the great-great-great grandnephew of American author Ambrose Bierce.
