Explanation of Ratings

A beautifully produced, large-format picture book from the world's best-known animal mutilation researcher. Features dozens of full-color glamour shots of abused animal carcasses, along with a rich variety of supporting material, including news clippings, interviews and government documents. This book is the size and weight of big city phone book and is as slickly produced as a company annual report. Certainly worth the price, at least for the sheer volume of material provided. -- Glenn Campbell

Reservations

Some may question Howe's objectivity or her linking of mutilations to abductions and government cover-up. However, the visual information included here makes up for any weaknesses in the text.

Comparison to Other Books

This is probably the first book to go to for cattle mutilation claims. The high price is justified by the rich contents -- especially photos and newsclippings not published elsewhere.

Information from the Publisher

Always supportive

From the Book Cover

From Emmy award-winning documentary film maker Linda Moulton Howe's ten year research into the mysteries of worldwide animal mutilations, human abductions and government knowledge about alien life forms... comes AN ALIEN HARVEST.

"The mutilations are one of the greatest outrages in the history of the western cattle industry."

-- Colorado Governor Richard Lamm, 1975

"Unfortunately, part of the phenomenon seems to be operating outside or beyond the human race, manipulating us constantly. That's the part we should worry about."

-- John Keel, 1983, Author, The Haunted Planet

"OPERATION MAJESTIC-12 is a TOP SECRET Research and Development/Intelligence operation responsible directly and only to the President of the United States" about the technology, biology and purpose of alien life forms discovered and studied since the 1940's.

-- Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, Novmber 18, 1952
Former Director, Central Intelligence Agency
