Explanation of Ratings

Credibility = Low: In general, this category is a rating of the author's intellectual discipline and the strength of his argument (which are low), not the veracity of his claims (which could be true in spite of the weak argument).

Another beautifully produced "coffee table" from Howe. This one focusses on three main topics: Crop Circles, abduction accounts and, of course, animal mutilations. Never have cored cow rectums been so artfully displayed.

As in all of Howe's "productions," the quality of the illustrations in this book is fantastic -- like would be produced by the National Geographic. And like that magazine, you might not bother with the words, which are no more skeptical than writers of Geographic articles. -- Glenn Campbell

From the Book Cover

Worldwide... crop circles, animal mutilations, human abductions, other beings, alien symbols, military underground... the facts, eyewitnesses and high strangeness in these phenomena appear to be building toward a revolution in consciousness.

"We are moving from the paradigm that we are alone in the universe to a new one in which we are not alone and something out there is interacting with us, our animals and our plant life, forcing glimpses of other realities upon us," reports Emmy award-winning TV producer and writer, Linda Moulton Howe.
