Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

This is the Mercedes of hot dog forks and an essential tool for "civilized" desert survival. This one-foot unit telescopes to 3-1/2 feet for safe roasting of weiners and marshmallows over the campfire. A wheel on the handle provides a "remote control," allowing the user to turn the shaft of the fork and attached weiner without releasing grip on the unit. The Rolla Roaster is a high-tech, user-friendly device that seems to make weiners taste better.

If you buy more than one Rolla Roaster, we will include a free plastic carrying case for each two ordered. - Glenn Campbell

Our Synopsis

The Official Hot Dog Cooker of the Groom Lake Interceptors

The two-fork set includes a plastic carrying pouch.

This essential outdoor device (Pronounced "Rolla Roasta" by the initiated) comes to us from the good folks of Orofino, Idaho. Yes, that's right, it's made in the good ol' USA! (Most likely by out of work aerospace engineers). Sure, it's more expensive than a plain hot dog stick, but we're talking technology here.

Our Reservations

There is no scientific, quantitative evidence that the Rolla Roaster actually makes weiners taste better or is any more effective in cooking them than, say, a stick. We sell the Rolla Roaster for its snob appeal and nothing more.
