Some of Soviet Satellites May Attend Paris Meeting

PARIS, June 10 (AP)—Some of the Soviet satellites may attend a meeting of the European Conference on Security and Cooperation in Paris, according to a source here.

The source said that the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, and Yugoslavia might be invited to the meeting.

The meeting is expected to be held in Paris in the near future. It is a part of the efforts to bring about a general agreement on security and cooperation in Europe.

The source said that the Soviet Union is expected to be the only one of the satellites to attend the meeting.
