Publisher's Synopsis

Records over 150 different UFO reports in the Maritime Provinces of Canada, with one chapter dedicated to the Shag harbour Incident. Includes over 40 photos and maps.

From the Book Cover

Though UFOs have recently "landed" a significant place in pop culture, they have made their presence known in the Maritimes for decades. In fact, one of the earliest known sightings of a UFO was reported to Judge Simeon Perkins in Nova Scotia in 1796.

Beginning with the 1950s, Maritime UFO Files chronicles, decade-by-decade, dramatic and unusual sightings of a variety of mysterious, multi-shaped UFOs witnessed by pilots, ordinary citizens, and even RCMP officers. These first-hand accounts, based on actual military documents and RCMP reports, range from the observation of unexplainable lights in the sky, to claims of abduction. This book also devotes a chapter to the famous Shag Harbour Incident of 1967 -- and event that remains one of the most documented accounts of a UFO crash in modern history.

Don Ledger, a pilot and civil servant, has been researching the UFO phenomenon since 1992, and has appeared on local and national television across North America. He resides in Bedford, Nova Scotia.

Regarding "Maritime UFO Files: UFOs in Atlantic Canada" - Latest First

Maritime UFO Files

This is one of the best and most informative books on the activities of ufo's that i have ever read.The writer has done his homework,and it's easily read,it kept me reading till i finished it .There's a lot going on out there that nobody knows about until someone puts it all together.I hope to read more,I'm sorry i missed the author in the Greenwood mall for his book signing(maybe next time).Thanks; C.U.Ltr.
