Management Psychology & Technique

manabsurd Cover Image 	Management of the Absurd: Paradoxes in Leadership (new hardcover) By Richard Farson and Michael Crichton (foreword).. 1997, Simon &amp; Schuster, 172pp. "Challenging managers to reexamine their assumptions about effective leadership, a study of organizations and human relations explores thirty paradoxical situations and the impact of effective leadership." List price $21. (New) Psychologist, educator and former CEO Richard Farson presents of a series of management paradoxes designed to challenge conventional wisdom and encourage managers to reexamine their assumptions about effective leadership. Facile formulas, catchy slogans, ten-step programs, and quick fixes too often dominate today's management training programs. But in organizations as in all of life, human behavior is seldom predictable, and business dilemmas do not easily lend themselves to gimmicks or simplistic answers.	$7.50 1.5 lbs Add to cart
