Publisher's Synopsis

More than 150 true stories of the supernatural Midwest. Readers will enter an America they never knew existed--that of ghosts, haunted houses, possession and exorcism, of vanishing people and ships, mystery lights, premonitory dreams and more. A perennial Halloween favorite.

From the Book Cover

"There is a cumulative, chilling effect in the simple telling of these unexplained events... amazing tales!" --
Chicago Magazine

You are about to journey into a world filled with people and events out of step with what we believe.

It is the world of the supernatural, a gathering of the unbelievable and fantastic -- ghosts, haunted houses, possession and exorcism, vanishing people and ships, mystery lights, premonitory dreams, and more. Each of these stories -- every one reported as true -- takes place in the American heartland, the deceptively quiet states of the Middle West.

From ghostly mansions in Ohio to a Nebraska classroom lost in time... from haunted mines in Minnesota to ancient spectres wandering the Ozark Hills of Missouri... enter an America you never knew existed... or have heard about only in terrified whispers.

"Legendary stories of phantoms, possessions by evil, spontaneous human combustion, and death cars...
GREAT READING FOR A STORMY NIGHT" -- ALA Booklist
