Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

A huge, reflective self-stick decal for use at your own "U.S. Air Force Installation." Otherwise known as "AF Form 2523, 10 October 1986" this sign was manufactured for the U.S. Government for actual military boundaries and buildings. We intercepted a few (by legal means) and are now making them available to the public for entertainment purposes only. When applied to doors, fences, tree houses or anywhere else you want to add that "Restricted Area" cachet. (We sell it with the understanding that you will not use it to misrepresent an actual military border -- although that could be a lot of fun.) The heavy-duty 15" x 18-1/2" vinyl decal has a hexagonal-celled surface to reflect car headlights. The back is covered with a permanent self-adhesive (like that used on licence plate renewal decals): Once affixed to a non-porous surface, it will probably never come off. Why steal an old restricted area sign, when you can get this one new? -- Glenn
