"The Nuclear Age Peace Foundation is a non-profit, non-partisan international educational organization. It is comprised of individuals and organizations from throughout the world that recognize the imperative for world peace in the Nuclear Age. Our advisors include some of the world's greatest peace leaders including many Nobel Peace Laureates. We are a non-governmental affiliate of the United Nations, and have been designated by the United Nations as a Peace Messenger Organization. Founded in 1982, the Foundation performs research and analysis on critical issues of peace and global survival, and prepares and distributes educational materials by leading thinkers on these issues. The Foundation is a catalyst in initiating worldwide efforts to abolish nuclear weapons, to create an International Criminal Court, and to use science and technology for constructive purposes."
