Hmmm...I've discussed the notion of the 'Above Top Secret' classification with people who should know, and I always receive the same answer:

There is no higher level of classification than TS, because any disclosure of such information would seriously damage NatSec - and by definition that's as bad as it can get I'd be surprised if anyone on the SW list doesn't know that access Special Access Programs is compartmentalised - i.e.on a Need To Know basis.

If this alleged Above TS classification was ever cited - with FOIA evidence (even if it was totally blacked out) for anything other than UFOs - I'd be very interested to see it.

Best

David
