Military/Intelligence Facilities

Official & Unofficial Sites

Links regarding specific government facilities that could be engaged in secret programs. This may include any installation owned or operated by the government (U.S. or foreign) that could conceivably be involved in classified work. These can include official sites, unofficial third party sites and pages stored on this server.

For new links, the location of the facility must be given, including the state and nearest civilian town.

See Parent Page for sites only on this server.

See Military Branches for high-level links to Army, Navy, CIA, etc.

For more links see our Old Military Links Page.

Reader Comments Regarding "Military/Intelligence Facilities - Official & Third Party Sites" - Latest First

"closed" base in Okla?

Outside of Cordell, Okla is a "closed" base with a very long runway. I'm told it has appeared vacant for years, but is carefully guarded. One story told to me by someone who lived in Cordell had a couple of high school teens climb over the fence to "run around" and within minutes a jeep with a .50 cal machine gun was all over them. They were supposedly held for hours and eventually turned over to their parents. Urban legend? Maybe. There is a base there.

You left out Fort Belvoir, VA

You left out Fort Belvoir, Virginia, which is a facility used not only by the Army, but also by the Air Force, Navy and CIA for special intelligence operations, including UFO programs, including, but not by way of limitation, USO (unidentified submerged objects) detection and tracking. Fort Belvoir is a very important facility for ET-oriented military and intelligence activity, behind only Wright Patterson and Area 51 in importance. Just thought you ought to know. I do not have a URL for Fort Belvoir, and even if there was one, they are not likely to highlight this activity on their website.
