They write (after providing a netsearch feature): "Type in this to search, 'Alien UFO Roswell Area51 Abduction' and you'll come up with about 5,900 matches. That means, there are roughly 5,900 people out there who believe strongly enough to go out of their way to put up a web page. And alien web pages rank among the top 5% of all web pages accessed in the world. So, we're looking at *at least* several million people on the Internet who think something is not just out there, but here."
