TOTAL-3.UFO

* UFO QUOTES *

from Patricia Weissleader's "Aliens, EBES, Grays, Iarga" at <http://www.in-search-of.com/frames/aliens/aliens_nf.html>:

"It is said that Grays are dying out and need human material to keep their population going...The idea that human material could help these beings supports the theory that the Grays are distant relations of ours. But in all those autopsies, no one ever thought to count the chromosomes. Or even check if they had any."

"[In Wendelle Stevens' book UFO Abduction at Botucatu, 'abductee] Joao was given some medicine by the aliens to treat the son of a friend who had a skull hemorrhage. It was to be rubbed into the soles of the feet! Some of the material was analyzed by a lab. The 22-page computer report of the tests is included in the book, for any chemists who may want to follow it up. A second medicine given to him was not analyzed at the time, due to lack of available resources. (I assume they ran out of money--the analysis in the book must have been quite expensive.)"

"I happened to have COACH on, and it seemed to be a "very special episode" (you know, the kind of thing where a sitcom does something serious about prostate problems, or breast cancer, or something). In this case, it was about alien abduction! Dauber, who is admittedly an idiot on the show, believed he was an abductee. The coach, noted for his insensitivity, fired him (since he couldn't give 100 percent to the football team, given that he was expecting to leave the planet soon). The "sensible one" on the show, the coach's wife, encouraged the coach to treat him kindly. The other characters on the show (which mostly consists of fools and dweebs) believed Dauber. It was like sensitivity training for dealing with abductees. Strange." --Bufo Calvin

"During the ensuing year there will be authenticated sightings of roughly 200 UFO's, of which the Pentagon will be able to disprove 210.' --LIFE Magazine, 1/6/1958."

About the information in his Galactic Database, Jan Lustrup writes: "The information in this database are mainly based on down-channeled information from the spacepeople--using different telepathic methods of communication. The intention of the base is to make people aware of the existence of the spacepeople and their presence here. The base is a small part of a bigger plan which goal is to merge the Earth civilization with the Galactic civilization. The base also contains some UFO pictures from other planets/ dimensions received with technical equipment based on alien technology."

* Extensive discussion of Roswell along with the best arguments against Mogul
* Extensive discussions of the best UFO cases, from radar-visual to photographic to ground-trace
* Massive chronicle of government involvement, in what will eventually amount to an online encyclopedia though presented coherently and in an organized manner. We will also have many FOIA documents online.
* Online library of academic articles on the UFO phenomenon."

* OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS*

"BEYOND BOUNDARIES #3, January/February 1997. Do you think this "weird stuff" is a trip? It can be, with Beyond Boundaries travel agency. Besides booking trips to see UFOs and Chupacabras, among other things, Joyce Murphy has also started putting out this newsletter. It's quite good, having an extensive news section and many graphics. This issue includes: a feature on comet Hale-Bopp and its possible companion; International News; Mexico Expedition Report; Meet Roy Dutton; High Strangeness in America's Heartland by Bob Buck; various tidbits, including one on astronaut UFO sightings; letters; and a Macrihanish update, etc. Write them at P O Box 250, Rainbow Texas, 76077, call them at 1-800-259-8747, e-mail Joyce at jmurphy@onramp.net. Tell 'em Bufo sent you."
