The People Sunday (UK), August 10 1997 p. 12:

Butchers from another world

ALIENS are being blamed for the slaughter of hundreds of animals in the beautiful countryside where the TV hit Heartbeat is being filmed.

Farmers in North Yorkshire are gripped with fear after a series of bizarre deaths on open moorland.

In the latest, nine sheep were found with their stomachs ripped out in the village of Snainton.

And deer were found with holes in their head and drained of blood in the Dalby Forest area.

Over a three-year period, similar strange deaths have been reported all over the North York Moors.

Former police sergeant Tony Dodd, now a UFO expert, says all the evidence points to aliens.

"There have even been reports of the dead animals falling from the sky, often coinciding with UFO sightings." he says.

"Without doubt, there is something very sinister going on."

In America, UFO experts believe aliens caused the death of up to 10,000 cattle, found with heads and necks as skeletons but the rest of their corpses intact.

Similar strange cases are still unexplained in the Scottish Highlands and, in October 1995, along the Ulster boarder.
