Subject: Disinformer...?

Mr. Campbell...

I've always liked your web site, and consider you one of the voices for rationalism in ufology. Don't you think it was a little ill-considered for you to reprint libellous claims originating from a anonymous crank? I'm referring to the list of ufological "disinformers" you recently published.

I'm sure you found that list to be nothing more than giggle-inducing, and I suppose I should feel likewise. Still, after all these years of being called an "agent," I've never been able to distance myself emotionally from these crankish accusations. I get pissed off when people accuse of me working on behalf of some secret agenda; my words, whether foolish or wise, have never represented anything other than my own beliefs.

In all likelihood, a lot of the other putative "disinformers" outed by Mr. Anonmous Kook feel as I do. You might want to consider removing that nonsense from your site. Young people and newcomers might be tempted to take that shit seriously.

=====

Aw, he's just jealous. According to the list, Cannon is only an "investigator/disinformer," while I'm a "super-sophisticated disinformer."

Some people don't have what it takes.
