LAZAR ON "INSIDE DRAG RACING"

From: "Zero" <akazero@pe.net>
Date: Sat, 22 Nov 1997 10:17:34 +0000
Subject: Lazar....

Caught Lazar's last interview on "inside drag racing" -- a whopping five whole minutes...

Same ol' story, nothing new -- except maybe when Don Garlits asked Bob if he'd ever seen one of the ET's, Lazar paused, then said an emphatic "NO".

Most humorous part was Lazar's coffee cup. It said "Area 51", then had a picture of a flying saucer on the next line, under that it said: "Been there", "Done that"...

In the end, it was not worth watching 25 minutes of speeding cars and motorcycles, just to catch another 5 minutes of Bobby the UFO mechanic.

RENO SIGHTING NOT MYLAR BALLOONS

Date: Sat, 13 Dec 1997 04:17:05 -0500 (EST)
Subject: Re: Re: UFO Sighting in Reno (mylar balloons?)
From: authority@webtv.net
[Response to previous posts]

The Reno-Tahoe Airport classified the sighting as a UFO. The object did not rise higher and higher up into the sky, it stayed at the same level for a whole hour. As a video from Channel 4 in Reno will show, the object streaked across the sky and then resumed its stationary posture, all at the same altitude. It was not a cluster of mylar balloons.

QUERY: AIR BASE ON MESA

Date: Sat, 06 Dec 1997 23:18:08 -0600
From: tes <tes.see@usa.net>
To: webmaster@ufomind.com
Subject: UNKNOWN AIR BASE

I hope you can help find a air base I have looking for since the early 70's. On a flight to LA I saw a air base thar looked to be in good condition but abandoned. This base looked unique in thar it sat on top of a mesa. We were about 20 min.from LA in a DC 10 and were coming from the south east. I have spoken to many people I know in the AIR FORCE but no one seams to know about this base. The runway runs from edge to edge on thw mesa so if a plane were to take off long or land short they would be in bad trouble. I think this base is in So CA or AZ Hope you know its name and or its location because it has been driving me nuts.

This was not a municipal air port. I did not see any town nearby. This base had a lot of military style buildings and areas for loading munitions. It also had a large water tank and barracks.

Those sound like routine illumination flares connected with exercises on the Nellis Range. We see them a lot in Rachel.

They are probably burning magnesium flares suspended on parachutes. I have yet to see the actual device or learn exactly how they are used, but they appear to be nothing classified.

Hi There. I just wanted to say that I've rarely visited a website that was so enjoyable to navigate. Contrary to the visual wasteland that is the net these days, your site is usable, readable and incredibly FAST! As for the content, I find myself torn as I am a skeptic by nature (in fact, I'm fairly fond of organisations such as CSICOP for instances), however when it comes to UFOlogy and the UFO topic in general, there's this little part of my mind that just doesn't want to turn over into ultra-skeptic mode. Perhaps this is just wishfull thinking for me, or maybe perhaps there really is something there. I'd like to congratulate Glenn Campbell on providing a fairly well balanced resource. Considering some of the "extreme fringe" stuff that's out there, your site is fairly tame and I can see that there is some dose of skepticism parcelled through-out, while not shutting off avenues of enquiries like so many "hard" skeptical orgs do.

Keep up the good work.

DARLINGTON BOOK RECOMMENDED

I recently purchased from you a copy of David Darlington's book. I would suggest this book to all of those people who, like me, have joined this drama in the second or third act and would like to be brought up to speed. It's a fascinating story and even though most of us may never know the outcome we can all be entertained nonetheless.

Oh yeah, I almost forgot...my latest order was made on Monday and recieved by Wednesday. Few places are ran so effeciently. You and your staff are to be commended.

Subject: Dreamland chronicles review

There is a book reveiw of Area 51 The Dreamland Chronicles in the current issue of Men's Journal. The review has a few things to say about Bob Lazar and John Lear and I think it's worth picking up the magazine to take a look at. It's on page 52 of the December/January issue. If you have trouble finding the magazine e-mail me and I will send you a copy of the article.

Hello Glenn,

I was just curious as to why you label yourself a cult leader. What sort of cult? I thought your organization was dedicated to understanding Area 51. That statement is a little misleading.

Sincerely,
Jasmine

[Jasmine: What's wrong with being a cult leader? They may be a little undemocratic, but at least they GET THINGS DONE. -G]

ALIENS INFILTRATE DUTCH GOVERNMENT

Date: Mon, 8 Dec 1997 08:41:47 -0500 (EST)
From: Anonymous
Subject: Aliens in the government of Holland, Europe
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/ufo/comment/>

I am convinced that aliens have infiltrated the Dutch government. I can proof this statement by reports about several secret meetings, held by a number of creatures from outer space. Soon I will make public an alien conspiracy, which has a dutch revolution as purpose. I can not sign this message because I am being watched by the BVD, the secret intelligence agency of Holland.
