Richard Boylan has written a biography of Col. Steve Wilson. It is... a remarkable story of a remarkable man, and no one more capable of telling it than Dr. Boylan. --GC

You can find it in three parts at:

EXCERPT...

The Man Who "Outed" the U.S. Saucer Program: Colonel Steve Wilson
A Short Biography*
by Richard Boylan, Ph.D.

(c)1997

There is much about Colonel Steve "Wilson"'s life that he will not allow to be known, for good reason. Colonel Wilson is a hunted man. Moving from state to state to evade several attempts on his life, he currently is battling cancer. Like a number of other prominent disclosers of top secrets about UFOs and governmental cover-ups (astronaut Gordon Cooper, Congressman Steve Schiff, CSETI's director and executive assistant Dr. Steven Greer and Shari Adamiak, and MJ-12 insider Dr. Michael Wolf), the Colonel is suffering from a cancer which may have been externally "imposed" to silence him. But, like these other brave witnesses, the death threats have only made even firmer Wilson's resolve to tell all.

This biographical sketch is based on limited information provided by the Colonel, and certain data from his discharge papers. I have written this biographical sketch, as a tribute to a man who feels the public's right to know extremely-important information about extraterrestrial contacts supercedes a military/intelligence cabal's misuse of "national security" secrecy to cloak their misdeeds. Here then is, without varnish, Steve Wilson, the man, the officer and the crusader.

Steve Wilson was born in the 1930's, and spent five years in a state orphanage. In order to escape the savage beatings there, he ran away. He had always dreamed of being a pilot. Befriended by a prostitute with the proverbial "heart of gold", this tall 13-year-old was accepted into the Air Force, when his newfound "mother" stated he was 16 and signed for him to enlist.
