Powerful ally

AT least one-member of Congress is gung-ho in the search for extraterrestrials. Asked by Washington weekly The Hill if he thinks aliens ever visited earth, Republican Rep. Joe Skeen, fittingly elected from UFO hotspot Roswell, N.M., says, "There's a great possibility. I wouldn't discount it. I've lived through the era of a lot of things that are almost unbelievable, unthought of, unimaginable. In our part of the country we're used to seeing the unimaginable really happen." As for the Air Force's insistence that the alleged crash in 1947 was a weather balloon and the bodies supposedly retrieved were actually crash test dummies dropped nine years later but simply confused by the faulty memories of locals, Skeen sniffs, "The Air Force doesn't help their own case because they're getting confused between '47 and '56."
