UFO Wave Predicted To Hit New Hampshire & Maine

One of the worlds largest UFO sightings will hit New Hampshire and Maine starting in Oct. 1997.

Based on data that I have collected I believe there will be mass UFO sightings sweeping across New Hampshire & Maine begining very soon. These sightings will be mostly in the northern parts of both states, but I would not rule out sightings in the southern areas of these states. I believe that the highest concentration will be between Errol, NH and Oquossoc, ME.

Recently I became aware of ancient carvings in the mountians west of Oquossoc ME. These carvings appear to represent a possible ancient alien landing site. At present this is all I am at liberty to discuss.

I am not suggesting that everyone run up to this area based on my prediction! I simply suggest that you watch this area. I could be WRONG, but I may be RIGHT. We'll just have to wait and see.

At this time, I can not divulge my data or reasons for coming to this conclusion. So please do not ask. I will be making updates as soon as I can.
