Subject: The Visitor.Com

Dear Ufomind:

We are writers for a web show called "The Visitor.com," which is launching on September 19th in parallel to a new Fox television show called "The Visitor".

The show deals with a Navy pilot who was abducted by aliens in 1947 and returns to Earth in 1997. His mission in 1997 is to find people who have the potential to change the course of human history for the better and inspire them to follow their destiny.

Our web show features realistic portrayals of characters throughout society whose lives are touched by this "Visitor," or who have some interest in tracking him -- the FBI, people researching paranormal affairs, etc. We are hoping people can use our fictional web site as a springboard to exploring the real thing.

Clearly, your web site is THE spot for UFO information on the web, and we hope to make multiple links to various pages.

We will be utilizing your automatic link process, so you will become aware of us that way through your review process -- but we also wanted to notify you in this more personal manner, and also say:

Hi! Ufomind kicks butt!

Thanks so much.
Sincerely,
the writers of The Visitor.Com
