Re: UFO Crash on Long Island: Old News!

From: UpDates - Toronto <updates@globalserve.net>

From: Moderator, UFO UpDates - Toronto

A post by Leon Thompson <Ufonetwork@aol.com> and containing what purports to be a recent Press Release has been causing ripples on some Lists and news.groups for the past 24 hours.

When a copy arrived here yesterday (Monday) morning it rang a bell. The LIUFON Press Release, I recalled, was at least five years old.

I've tried to track down the original in the UpDates Archives in Toronto but have only been able to go back as far as January, 1994.

There's also an earlier version that dates back to 28 Jun 93 from titan@sys6626.bison.mb.ca (Titanium Knight). But the URL doesn't appear to be functioning.

It seems that Leon Thompson, for whatever the reason, has not been precise in his attribution and has caused some confusion:

>Long Island UFO Network now has proof. Undeniable evidence of >UFOs and the LI UFO Crash of 1992. This is the LIUFON First

Highway. He noticed that the military personnel were dressed in black jump suits and the vehicles showed no markings. The side streets of Beatrice, Dawn and Sunset were blocked by additional military personnel. At one point five New York State Police cars were turned back from entering the area (even though the State Police at the West Hampton Barracks deny this event, a confidential source from that unit has confirmed the story).
