L.A. Times, August 8, 1998:

38 LOCKHEED WORKERS WIN HUGE TOXICS SUIT

(full story at <http://www.latimes.com/HOME/NEWS/STATE/topstory.html>)

In one of the largest toxic pollution verdicts ever rendered, a Los Angeles Superior Court jury has awarded $760 million in punitive damages to 38 past and present Lockheed workers found to have suffered harm from chemicals while building the Stealth fighter in Burbank.

The damages were assessed against five major oil and chemical companies -- Exxon, Unocal, Shell, Ashland and DuPont -- which manufactured the chemicals and were adjudged to have failed to warn the workers about their toxic side effects.
