I received this strange "legal announcement" this morning. -- GC

From: Scifact@aol.com
Date: Sun, 31 May 1998 22:53:35 EDT
To: webmaster@ufomind.com
Subject: Legal announcement-Merrell to ufomind.com

This notice serves as announcement on June 1, 1998, that John Merrell, and the party of Fellowes, Hartman, and Rivers have issued a legal filing on statements made on and connected to webmaster@ufomind.com. This serves as notice that statements made about John Merrell, and references to John Merrell on behalf and as party to Noreen Renier are considered false and defamatory. These same statements have been reprinted in print media and referenced to webmaster@ufomind.com, by the parties writing the material found and reference in public document FA-6789-2487, N.Y. State/Newark/Clay. Filings are present or will appear in the states of New York, Florida, and Texas on or about June 1, 1998. Responsible parties to webmaster@ufomind.com will be contacted if considered necessary to participate in hearings connected to the dissemination of these materials. The limitations for liability are apart from actions considered as damages resulting from the loss of business information, or the pecuniary loss arising out of the use of the statements made on behalf of the report as published.

From: Glenn

I have no idea who John Merrell is or what the message is referring to.

I assume that this message is from one of our known "problem clients" with a history of sending false legal notices.

Some clues:

- The source of the message is AOL, where anyone can create an anonymous screen name.
- Real legal notices are not sent by email.

- The message doesn't specify what it is complaining about.
(It doesn't seem to be saying anything at all.)
- Needlessly pompous language.
- No contact information is given for "John Merrell" or his party of Fellows.
- The conspicuous use of a document number reminds me of Jack Schulman, who was criticized for not having case numbers for his fake legal notices. He then started putting them on everything.

I am filing this message in the Noreen Renier section because that is the only name I recognize, but she may be only a victim.
