CONGRESSMAN SCHIFF DIES

ASSOCIATED PRESS ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) -- Rep. Steve Schiff, a straight-arrow crime fighter whose battle with skin cancer forced him out of Washington after five terms in Congress, died Wednesday at home. He was 51...

HEAVEN'S GATE ONE YEAR LATER

Associated Press, March 26, 1998

RANCHO SANTA FE, Calif. (AP) -- The foul smell and unsightly scenes of the Heaven's Gate mass suicide are gone from these fragrant hills, where eucalyptus trees and bird of paradise blossoms find root in the soil of million-dollar estates.

Horses frolic in nearby fields. Mercedes and Jaguars purr down winding roads. Tan, fit residents flash megawatt smiles. The old street name -- Colina Norte, or North Hill -- is gone, replaced by Paseo Victoria, or Victory's Avenue.

POSSIBLE EXPLANATION FOR "JANET" NAME

Date: Fri, 27 Mar 1998 19:16:11 -0500 (EST)
From: Rupert Pupkin <navig8r@coam.net>
Subject: Perhaps A Prosaic Explanation...
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/area51/org/janet/>

The FAA has, for years, used "tactical" callsigns for brevity of communications between aircraft and the ground. For example, Air Florida (the little airline that stopped for ice) was, "PALM," and its flights were designated "PALM and the flight number. America West is known as, "CACTUS." These shorthand designators usually include two good consonants, the better to be understood on a sometimes noisy AM - VHF circuit by individuals who are sometimes excited and sometimes experiencing a high ambient noise level.

"JANET" may simply be faster to say and more easily understood than, "G and G."

It's CERTAINLY shorter than the N number...

DR. EDGAR MITCHELL ON PHILIP CORSO

"A group that I work with has interviewed Col. Corso quite extensively. He was who he said he was. He did what he said he did. He's a good witness. However, there are some flaws because we know that some of the technologies were very likely native grown and not reverse engineered. Unfortunately, Col. Corso did not review the final manuscript of his book before it was published, and it would appear that either his co-author or the editors made some claims that are very offensive to some of our own scientists and engineers of the period, and that there are more and more claims that still need to be substantiated.

"Basically though, Col. Corso himself was involved in the transfer of technology business just as he said he was."

PARAPSYCHOLOGY WINS BLIND TESTING SURVEY

See article at: <http://www.parascope.com/en/articles/blindScience.htm>

A survey of over a thousand published research papers indicates that parapsychology actually adheres much more strictly to the scientific method of blind techniques than the "hard sciences" do. Tests in the areas of ESP, telekinesis and other paranormal studies frequently employ blind controls to eliminate experiment biases, whereas research in chemistry and physics hardly ever follows such practices.

From: Jim Glab <JGLAB@pacbell.net>

I like your ordering process, it is unique and user friendly. You're also most generous in the "freebies" offered on your site. When I have purchased books from discounters, the price was a few bucks cheaper, but they don't give anything away or supply one with the resources this site does. Thank you.

BOYLAN ON FIORE'S LOSS OF LICENSE

Dr. Edith Fiore is better known for her other book: (1990)
"Encounters: A Psychologist Looks at Cases of Abductions by Extraterrestrials". Dr. Fiore's brave lectures on her ET encounters work and research helped inspire my research into these matters.

Like me, she drew the fire of Air Force Colonel Bruce Ebert, President of the California Board of Psychology, who goes after psychologists who go public about their work with experiencers.

DR. FRANK STRANGES' CREDENTIALS

Date: Fri, 27 Mar 1998 01:56:08 -0500 (EST)
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/ufo/people/s/stranges/profile.shtml>
From: Steve Threlkeld <sthrelkeld@earthlink.net> [with permission]

Regarding the comments on Dr. Frank Stranges background:

Why don't you just ask him where he got his education, his special awards, and worked as a special agent, etc. and then check it out?
Everything you are saying is simple conjecture unless you can support it.

I think Art Bell is considering having him back as a guest, and soon.
So good luck, I hope you can find out something definitive, and soon.
If you need the help, let me know and I'll help you check him out.

FROM THE MODERATOR

A list of Stranges' credentials appears on the back of his book "The UFO Conspiracy." See them at <http://www.ufomind.com/ufo/people/s/stranges/profile.shtml>

Most of his claimed credentials are sufficiently vague as to be uncheckable. He claims a Phd from "Union University." There are several colleges with the name "Union" but none are close to the places Stranges says he has lived and none offer the degree Stranges claims. See my investigation at <http://www.ufomind.com/misc/1997/feb/d02-001.shtml>

When someone makes a claim about their credentials, the burden of proof is on them, not me. Personally, I don't think Stranges is worth the time to investigate... and I wouldn't want to deprive the Art Bell show of his energetic presence. Bell and Stranges are a perfect match. Bell needs phonies and phonies need Bell. -- GC

Area 51 is closing down. Their will be a new plase in WY. I know, my husband is helping with the move. Along with other people, my husband knows and has seen things that "we" will have to live with the rest of our lives. The other base will be three times as big as 51. "BIG BOTHER" is watching. Keep you eyes to the sky, and you will see!

AN ORIGINAL SUGGESTION

Date: Sun, 21 Dec 1997 22:21:32 -0500
From: [withheld]
Subject: Just a suggestion

If you want to find out what's going on in Area 51, organize a massive march on the complex, like the million man march, but it doesn't have to be to that scale. A couple thousand or more would do the trick. There is no way they would fire on or attempt to arrest everyone, after all, there is safety in numbers. That is if the complex still exists, though. I hear they're moving/have moved to Utah or Colorado. I know a lot more would have to go into it than just a march, but I'm sure the brilliant minds at your research facility could work out the details.

Just a half-cocked suggestion from someone who desperately wants to know the truth.

A HUMBLE OPINION

From: GuySkillet + Chris Noon <alton.college@campus.bt.com>
Subject: UFO do not ex
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/ufo/comment/>

In our humble opinion, we do not believe that all the hype and attraction to the cause of UFO discovery is dire and derivative. We think that the whole point of chasing figments of people's imaginations on the off-chance that maybe one will reveal something is, to be frank, a total scam and waste of money. We believe that this is a complete waste of public time and money and that it should be better spent composing violin concerto's or aiding the sewage ridden rivers of the less developed. Thank you for your time and consideration on this topical subject.
