The Colonel is gone now and I will be shutting down here this weekend after the lists are transferred to the new operators who will be sending out Skywatch from now on. I will type a letter he wanted sent out to everyone and email it before this computer is shut down.

Thank you all,
Carolyn

["Carolyn" smells to me like an email alias for "The Colonel." She seems to play the same role that "Ed Wang" does for Jack Shulman. She is the only one who seems to have inside information on Wilson... and isn't she the only source for his "death"?

Does anyone have any evidence to support or refute this theory? There ought to be some clues in comparing their messages. -- GC]

FORT IRWIN "TEARDROP" SIGHTING

Commenting on: http://www.ufomind.com/area51/desert_rat/index.shtml
From: [withheld by request]

Have you ever seen a ufo that was shaped like a teardrop with the pointed end towards the ground? This AM approximatly 730 I saw such an object. At first I thought it was a weather balloon. and quickly realized that it was not possible for a Balloon to fly at jet speed. I told my wife about it and as it continued into its flight path it made a slight change in its direction and in the process it turned as if to roll about 90 degrees. At that time it looked like it was a flat shape somewhat like a frisbee. and it once again made a navigation manuver and from that point on until it disappeared in the distance it looked once again like a huge teardrop. All during this time there was not a sound coming from the object that we observed. We live very close to the national Desert Training Center at Ft. Irwin Ca , close to the Marinr Corps Training Center at 29 Palms Ca, Edwards Air Force Base and Approximatle 140 Ground miles from Nellis AFb in Nevada. If this is one of the unusual air! craft that frequent your area I would like to know. Believe me when I say that I am going to keep a closer watch on the skys around here. C.J. SECURITY MANUAL: AN AF FAKE?

Date: Mon, 24 Nov 1997 21:56:41 -0500 (EST)
From: Padre
Subject: NOT a fake - but contrived
Commenting on: http://www.ufomind.com/area51/org/security/sec_man/
Host: 208.19.214.48 diall.msgexp.net

As a former IEO at this facility, this 'manual' was created in response to the lawsuit. Hence the AF's poor attempt at suppressing it and refocusing public attention to a non-issue. The security agreement alone for this facility is 22 pages and life imprisonment is the least of one's worry for a violation; treason is the minimum offense.

[Hmmm, interesting theory. The security manual and map that accompanied it could have been a deliberate release, patched together from real documents. 99% of the information in it could have been authentic -- enough to guarantee its acceptance and that of the other 1%. I don't think "refocusing public attention" is a plausible goal; the AF probably doesn't care much about public attention, and, conspiracy theories aside, I think manipulating it is much too complicated for any government agency. Instead, the purpose of the document could have been to release some tidbit of deceptive information that the AF wanted distributed for some concrete tactical reason. -- GC]

STRANGE CAVE NEAR MALAD, IDAHO

Date: Sun, 29 Mar 1998 20:30:38 -0500 (EST)
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/area51/list/1997/aug/a01-005.shtml>
From: "Moon Goddess" <nicholedru_63@hotmail.com>

There is a "cave" outside of Malad Idaho, in Weston canyon approximately 8 miles East of Malad. It is on the North side of the road, right off the road. It is huge! I was told that it was discovered by someone years ago, and when they found it, they said that it contained "metal parts of UFO ships and bodies". This same person that told me this, said that a friend of his was told by a military person to leave this area. This same person said that he has personally seen military trucks in this area. My friends in Malad all told me of a huge "boom" and an earthquake that occurred on a Friday around 6 pm late January or early February of 1998. (Actually, I was told of this event right after it happened, but I didn't record the exact date). They believe that this event occurred because of an underground explosion. This "cave", I am told, was "opened up" last summer. I drove by it about a month ago, at night, and saw it myself, it is huge! It is barracaded. I feel this may be something to investigate. I also went to Green River Utah and saw some new cargo there that was from Oklahoma. It was robin blue. The tarps over it were the same blue with banana colored stripes on it. When I got out to look inside of one of these huge "containers", I was mentally told that I would be shot if I took another step. Then, on the way out of this "main complex", we saw a dark blue truck with its doors open. It had a shell on it, and the shell was open. I asked my "internal advisor" who the driver was, and was told that it was a sniper! This was last February. I was watched very heavily. A white blazer turned around on the highway and watched us on this bleak Sunday. Then, about a few miles down the highway, on our way out, we noticed a black helicopter following us behind the southern hills of this highway! Weird, creepy stuff, eh? My friend as pointed out these new metal poles with triangles on top that are all over the place. He says that supposedly, there are for some sort of digital satellite system. He says, however, that these new installations have the potential capacity set up for the use of some sort of frequency manipulation. These poles are all over the place! Also, I forgot to mention that there is a new satellite/antenna system on the northern hills across from the highway from the main Green River complex! There is one of these tall triangular "poles" in North Salt Lake West of the Center street overpass west of the freeway of 1-15. It is surrounded by high electrical, barbed fence. Check these things out for yourself. I feel that I should at least tell people about my experiences so that others may see if it might fit in with theirs? (Check out the info. on Government uses of sound in Alaska!)

UNFORTUNATE HULAR COINCIDENCE

From: Hular Barrow <hular@muhlon.com>

Just for curiosity, I typed my name Hular into the search engine and found you. I am amazed that anyone could have accidentally formulated my name. Could you please tell me how you acquired it? Does it have a special meaning? I have often wondered about the origin of the name. If you can tell me anything about it please do.

Thank you,
Hular Barrow
hular@muhlon.com

["Hular" is a combination of "Huff" and "Lazar" and refers to them as a unit, with Huff doing the talking. I explained this to Hular Barrow and asked how he got his name. It was his grandfather's... and there is no Hungarian in his background. --GC]

Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/area51/org/janet/>

Today, at 4:45PM, January 12, 1998, I decided to stop on the South side of McCarran Field in Las Vegas. There is an observation parking area near the end of the east/west runway. While sitting there watching aircraft land I noticed an aircraft approaching the runway. It got down to about 20 feet above the end of the runway and suddenly poured the coals to the engines and luggingly took off again. It was a Janet 737 and I think they almost lost it.

no photos/approx 6 months ago i witnessed 2 large black (or very dark) prop planes...huge tail...the most noticable thing about the two craft...doing touch and go landings on private land...no airstrip...kicking up huge dust clouds...this was seen from "alamo restuarant" which is at the beginning of nevada's et hwy...maybe 35 miles from us base...sorry no photo but the craft was most distinguishable by its overly large tail...do not remember any markings...i travel both 95 and 93 in nevada quite a bit from az to idaho

[Military aircraft occasionally use the Alamo airfield for touch-and-goes. Since the strip itself is dirt, it is hard to see from the highway. --GC]

METEOR SHOWER STALLS TRAFFIC IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

From CNN online:

Traffic slowed to a halt on Interstate 80 in Northern California on Sunday and police were flooded with worried calls about a possible plane crash as the sky killed with flaming objects. The bright sky was a result of a 200-mile swath of meteors. "It was the king of all meteor showers," Coast Guard Lt. Alan Tubbs said. The Griffith Observatory in Los Angeles said the meteor shower stretched from Sacramento to Monterey.

From: Paul Doichev Jr

Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/ufo/comment/>

Aliens are normal living creatures. The only reason people are afraid of them is because they are more intelligent than us, and they are from a different planet. The military obviously has had contact with aliens, and is probably doing expiraments on them right now!! They will probably release that info. to us when we are ready.

Hello. I need to know what you think on an issue of mine. I have (used to have?) a friend that lived in long Beach ,CA. This was a little Japanese kid, 15 years old, with a bright future. One day, some of his friends dared him to hack the Department of Defense. He did it.He managed to recover 6 unreleased project blue book documents and 1 MJ12 document.The government never found him until his school which he hacked from reported him. He was then expelled and supposibly sent to a school for delinquints. I surveyed the school. Hes not there. His house has been sold with little record of previous owners. Him and his family have DISAPEARED.He is now an UNPERSON(1984). I dont know if hes moved far away, had a hit squad kill him or if hes getting buttrapped in a federal prison. He was only 15. What do you think? E-Mail me.

Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/area51/comment/>

Area 51 is probably the most secretive base in the nation. After about a year of research it is very possible that underground the main part of the base there is a huge facility filled with Aliens called the Grays (They are from Zeta Reticulla). It's quite possible we are back engineering there technology there. Our secret government has probably supplied the Grays with the facilities, but the Grays probably wanted to be kept hidden from the public, so the government is probably covering up their existence. If your doing a project or just have a question and need imformation email me.

I was going through you web page and had a great thought, what if area 51 as a complex was a high profil high security research center. And the resone that it is so high profil is because the government is diverting everyone's atenchen from a more inportend research center. Please drop me a line with your thoughts
