I anticipate that the government's response to the CAUS v. Army lawsuit will be a Motion for Summary Judgment to dismiss the lawsuit on the grounds that there is no 'triable issue.' Pursuant to the Motion, the government will submit affidavits swearing that they did a thorough search based upon CAUS' administrative request and could not find any responsive documents.

In order to create a 'triable issue' to defeat the Motion and move into the discovery stage of the litigation and hopefully determine whether such documents ever existed, and if so, what happened to them, CAUS will need an affidavit from Colonel Philip Corso swearing that certain statements he made in 'Day After Roswell' and summarized in his affidavit are true. That affidavit has now been prepared and sent to Colonel Corso for his signature.

You may access the affidavit at the CAUS website <http://www.caus.org>.
