Subject: My bestfriend- my sister
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/people/m/montel/>

My sister is a crack addict of 5 years. My problem is that I do not know if I should put her out of my life. She and her husband are living at my mother's house, with my 6 year old nephew that my mom is raising. My sister has no comprehension of what she has done not only to her life, but to our entire family. My mom cannot turn her away, but nothing that my mom is doing is making her get better. I think that if we all were to turn our back on her it'd get to her. I just feel like my mom is enabling her. I love my sister and I do not want to have to explain to my nephew why we are at his mother's funeral. I just thought I would see what someone else would do in my shoes.

Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/people/m/montel/>

I,m trying to get my sister out of a bad situation. She has two mixed children ages 4 years and 9 months, and lives with an abusive man. The best job she can get is waiting tables and has to put all her money into food, bills, clothes for the girls, and cab fare to work every morning because she has no car and he refuses to take her. She informed me that she was ready to leave after he threw her on the floor and choked her until she used her finger nails to get him to release her. I suspect that he has done this before. I am afraid for her and the children, but don't know where to turn. Please e-mail me at [withheld]@xoommail.com with any help you might be able to provide me with.

Subject: Depression- Older single mothers with younger children
To: webmaster@ufomind.com

Dear Montel
I watched your show today about Stepmothers and Biological mothers. This gave me some good ideas with the problem I am haveing with a 10yr old daughter and her father. I am 5lyr old now and Jennifer is totally dependent on me and not her father. She loves him very much and her father and I get along fairly well. Our main interest is Jennifer. We are both her biological parents and love her very much. The only problem now is she will not adapt to any other man but her father in my life. I am haveing a real hard time working with her on this subject. She refuses to sleep in her own bedroom, go outside the home with her friends, or letting me have some outside space with adult conversation. I am home with her everynight and work everyother weekend on the weekend she is with her father. Jennifer is a straight A" student, She is a model with Manhattan Model Search. She has a good life but I need one too. I am not getting any younger and I need a little of adult companionship. I wish there was a show on this subject. I dont care to be on the show and air my dirty laundry but I have great respect for your show and take to heart the subjects that you talk about. Please give me some ideas. Depressed and lonely.
Thank you for you time i am concerned, Montel, that you, an African-American male role model almost never feature stories that deal primarily with African-Americans. You are always showering your help and influence on Anglo-Americans, and it causes me to wonder if you even care for the people of your own race.

Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/people/m/montel/>

I have been with my husband for 9 years. My husband doesn't know who his real father is and doesn't seem to care about it to much since there is little he can do to find out. I want to know if there is anything that we can do. I think our son has the right to know where he comes from if he should ask and I would like to know who my husband is truly a part of. All his life there have been two men that claim him but he doesn't look like either one. One of these men are dead now. It is a real possibility that niether are his father Our son has two last names after these men and they may not be his name at all.

Subject: Gothic Culture
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/people/m/montel/>

I watched the show on Goths with my mother today. She thinks people who dress in goth are trying to get attension because they are insecure. I think it's the opposite, they (the goths) are fine with who they are it's the other people who are insecure and affraid of them. Prep kids are the insecure ones who are always wanting attension and to fit in with a group that is why they all dress the same exact way. The way someone dresses seems to be such a big thing now. I beleive a person who doesn't ware the so called "style" is more secure with who they are than someone who can't go in public with out Tommy or Old Navy on.

Subject: MY FATHER'S SECRET LIVES-THE TRUTH
Commenting on: <http://www.ufomind.com/people/m/montel/>

My father was suppose to be missining in action. He never returned home. When I was 18 he came back;but to find out he has been married severasl times. I'm elated I have other sisters and brothers. He never divorced my mom,she's not mentioned on any service records and we never received any support. he tells us things that aren't true. We all want to know and we all want to know why his side of family didn't care for us. We don't even know them. He is back in my life after a bitter divorce and we need to know the truth.

I was raped by my brother when I was 9 and told my mother when I was 13. She didn't believe me and that caused me to be very angry for many years. Parents have to listen to children. If a child says they were raped and it's true or not, something is wrong. We have to protect all of our children for they are our destiny.
