- 1/27, 10pm: Continued work on UFO Links Database, adding many new topics.
- 1/25, 10pm: New page on Sedona, Arizona and its UFO claims, including a report on our recent visit.

I felt at home here, because the banter reminded me of how gamblers talk in Las Vegas: The rewards they seek are based on a distorted logic that assumes they are the center of the universe and that everything that happens in Sedona/Las Vegas is a message from the gods to them. The free-wheeling entrepreneurship in Sedona also reminds of a busy market in the Third World, just outside a holy shrine, where fakirs, soothsayers and vendors of religious icons hawk their services. Nearly every business selling crystals, tours and psychic services is a mom-and-pop operation. Money flows freely, but competition is intense and every vendor works very hard to talk the New Age talk that will make the sale. Most of what is being sold is hokum, of course, but that only adds to Sedona's charm.

- 1/25, 9pm: Our UFO Organizations page is as complete as we can make it, with links from around the world. We challenge our readers to come up with others.
- 1/20, 6pm: New links page for Singapore Society & Civil Rights - This modern island state is a eerie combination of high tech and totalitarianism.
- 1/20, 5pm: New links page for Lies and Deception - Highly relevant to ufology!
- 1/20, 4pm: Our User Links system at the bottom of pages now allows print references to be entered. See Robert Bigelow for an example. To create a print reference, simple create a link as usual using the "Add a Link or Event" feature as the bottom of the page. Enter any available publication data, but do not enter the main URL (remove "http://"). Without a main URL, the system automatically recognizes the entry as a print reference.

Print references are useful because - believe it or not - there are many important documents, like articles and things called "books", that don't exist anywhere on the internet. Someone doing detailed research may want to look them up.

- 1/20, 3pm: Footage of Atomic Tests Available* - Article in today's Las Vegas Sun.
- 1/19, 11pm: UFO Organizations has been extensively updated, illustrating enhancements to our User Links system. Any user can add new urls to our index pages, and a new page allows broken links to be repaired as well. When adding new links to index pages, users can also enter "event information" -- date and place. The links on each page can then be sorted by date and place when displayed. It may not seem important now, but the enhancement of our links system is a major step forward for our site, allowing us to index virtually any kind of UFO information. It is all part of our fiendishly clever plan to take over the world. Just you wait!

- 1/15, 5pm: Briefs Claim Government Mislead Public About Groom Lake Case, reports today's Las Vegas Review-Journal.

The federal government deliberately misled the public and media about court proceedings addressing allegations that hazardous wastes were illegally burned at a classified Nevada military base, according to documents scheduled to be filed today in a San Francisco appeals court. According to the documents the government, under the shield of closed court proceedings, also sought the names of media agencies and contacts that it believed had dealings with an attorney who represents former base workers.

- 1/7, 8am: This server is now the host of the UFO UpDates Mailing List Archive. UFO UpDates is the most respected of the moderated mailing lists on UFOs, managed by Errol Bruce-Knapp in Toronto. Kevin Randle, Stanton Friedman, Philip Mantle and dozens of other prominent UFO researchers post there regularly. The only problem with the list has been its relatively high email load -- 20 to 40 messages per day -- which can be a burden to deal with by email. We have addressed this problem by creating an instant archive on the web. Just check in at the address above every 2-3 days, and you'll have access to all the messages. Each message is also linkable from other pages at a stable URL.

The Area 51 Mailing List, which is just coming back on-line after the holidays, is expected to complement the UFO UpDates list, not overlap it. While UFO UpDates covers broad UFO issues, the Area 51 list covers only Area 51, regional issues (NV, CA, AZ, UT), and specific government/military organizations. (See the charter at its new location.) The web storage format for the Area 51 list is now the same as the UFO UpDates list: Messages appear immediately on the web as soon as they are received, so you don't have to wait for the digest. The latest messages (last 6 days for Area 51 and last 3 days for UFO UpDates) appear on the main page for each of these archives, so these are the only pages you need to link to. In addition, the latest messages for the Area 51 list also appear in the current Ufomind What's New page.
