Our Focus

A topic is appropriate for Ufomind if it involves a specific claim about the physical universe which defies the laws of conventional science, economics or politics. Within this broad definition lie all manner of fiercely held human beliefs, from UFOs to psychic powers to alternative health and get-rich-quick schemes.

- UFOs -- Are they real, imagined or both?
- Parapsychology -- Remote viewing, telepathy and other unexplained exchanges of information
- Spirits and General Paranormal -- Ghosts, religious miracles and other otherworldly claims that are more spiritual and emotional than informational
- Conspiracy -- Hidden control
- Alternative Health -- Healing methods not recognized by medical science
- Weird Physics -- Free energy, perpetual motion, alchemy and theories of matter not recognized by conventional physics
- Religion -- Paranormal claims made by established religions
- Fortean -- Bigfoot, Nessie and other unproven creatures and unexplained physical events
- Ancient Mysteries and Fringe Archaeology -- Unconventional beliefs about man's past
- Places -- Haunted places, UFO claims, local history, travel guides and other information connected to a specific location
- People -- Prominent personalities in any of the above fields
- Our Bookstore offers new and used books in all of the topics above and more

On this website, we do not try to distinguish between "true" and "false" beliefs; we only try to record and categorize them and give nature an opportunity to take its course. Ufomind promotes neither belief nor disbelief: This website is simply a forum where beliefs can be expressed and the facts investigated.

We do not try to record "unprovable" beliefs or those that are purely spiritual. For example, most established religions, although indeed "paranormal," are inherently unprovable and difficult to categorize, so Ufomind is not a useful forum for theological debate. However, if members of any religion make a specific, modern paranormal claim -- like faith healing, exorcism or coming Armageddon -- then that aspect of the faith does belong on Ufomind. We also have a special interest in recently founded religious movements such as Mormonism and Scientology where the original miraculous events are still open to investigation.
