- Bender says he was visited by Men in Black - Source: The Strange <1/25/98 #1>
"In 1953 a man by the name of Albert K. Bender was running an organization called the International Flying Saucer Bureau (IFSB) and editing a little publication called "Space Review" that was dedicated to news of flying saucers. Shortly after Bender closed down his magazine and organization he gave an interview to a local paper (in) which he asserted that he had been visited by "three men wearing dark suits" who had ordered him "emphatically" to stop publishing material about flying saucers."
- The Real Men in Black Website - Contains an essay about Albert Bender's visit by the MIB <1/25/98 #2>
...Bender was the founder of the International Flying Saucer Bureau (IFSB) and editor of a small publication caled the "Space Review", that was dedicated to news of flying saucers. He had planned to reveal his findings in the October issue of the Space Review, but before the issue was published, Bender was visited by three "men dressed in black", who had already read the unpublished report...
