Dispatches from Richard Boylan

rebut Friedman

From: rich.boylan@24stex.com

 Subject: rebut Friedman

[A Note of alleged refutation from Stanton Friedman]

Amy:
 Thanks for the kind words. I anxiously await the UPN show.

Mr. Friedman was presented as an expert on that show which turned out to be a hoax about "alien abduction in Lake County. He didn't bother to check. So much for his "careful" inquiry methods.

Boylan has been putting out similar garbage for months. Just about everything in his Jan. 22, letter is false.

Strong claims, but no proof offered. The dodges below are certainly not that "proof". Even more telling is Friedman's dodging of many points about his long and deep involvement in, and knowledge about, the world of national security projects and secrecy.

1. I have never had a TOP SECRET Clearance.

Of course. I did not state that he did. Notice how Friedman tries to make it look like he's rebutting something.

2. I have never worked on Black Budget programs.

Dr. Wolf says that you did. Can you prove you never worked on Black Budget projects? Where is your "evidence"? (Ahem.)

3. My classified work in industry ended in 1970. I had a Q clearance and in some places a SECRET Clearance.

While Mr. Friedman claims that his classified work IN INDUSTRY ended in 1970, he did not state that he has not been involved in other classified work. Also note that he does not say how high his Q clearance went.

4. I certainly used the right name for Wolf when I called MIT (3 offices) and McGill (2 offices) after finding his listings for NYAS and AAAs via the phone.

Without the right need-to-know security clearances, Friedman will not be able to gain access to "erased" documentation of Dr. Wolf's studies, work and degrees. Any first-year logician knows that you cannot prove a negative.

5. The notion that Wolf can tell all about the inner workings of a Black Project and not the name of his thesis adviser is absurd.

As Friedman must know from his involvement in Secret and Q projects, insiders are not allowed the reveal "sources" (named individuals) and "methods" (classified details, and the way classified data is acquired.)

6. I did point out that it seems ridiculous [that's "ridiculous", Stan] that such a distinguished "scientist" didn't join the AAAS and NYAS until the 1990's. Neither checked his slaid [that's "stated, Stan] credentials. Just what specialty groups does he belong to such as the AMA, The American Physical Society etc?

Since Mr. Friedman has contacted and spoken with Dr. Wolf on several occasions, he has had ample opportunity to ask these questions of him. Notice the grandstanding for the "audience".

7. When people question me about credentials I provide an 8 page CV which lists professional affiliations amd many publications. Some are readily available in a good Tach Library. I provided diplomas and listings in alumni directories, and directories of professional groups. We have seen absolutely nothing from Wolf..no copies of licenses and diplomas.

It's clear that Friedman is unfairly trying to use the low-profile restrictions that Dr. Wolf is required to operate under in making measured and partial disclosure of facts from inside the MJ-12 scientific studies, in order to try to discredit Dr. Wolf. A more reasonable approach would be to weigh Dr. Wolf's statements and disclosures against other reliable sources. They match up very well.

He claims a bad accident. Any evidence [of] obituary date and location?

Why didn't Mr. Friedman ask Dr. Wolf during one of his contacts with him?

8. Of course I never claimed that a PHD in physics would not work on Black Budget programs. I have claimed that there is no evidence Wolf has a degree from anywhere. For that matter how about a BS from some place?

Investigator James Courant was able to locate an additional Master's degree that Dr. Wolf received that he didn't even refer to in his book. How hard did Friedman look?

I hate wasting time on this sort of garbage.

My feeling precisely.

The burden is on Wolf and Boylan.

The burden is on Mr. Friedman to do thorough research, and use the correct name, and present findings fairly within a national security restricted-information context. If he did so, we wouldn't be listening to his complaining.

and I will explore legal action against him if he doesn't stop lying and defaming me.

It appears that the defamation has been issuing from you.

After all there should be no problem establishing Wolf's [ that's Wolf's, Stan] background[,] even if he worked on Black Programs.

Friedman's assertion might be considered comical for the sophisticated audience, all too aware of the extreme ultra-secrecy UFO matters are shrouded in.

Stan Friedman.. feel free to distribute this.
