 Sacramento Bee

Dear Editor:

Friday's editorial "No Laughing Matter" takes the strange posture of defending one truth, while demeaning another truth as "ridiculous". I urge the Bee to get consistent and stand behind both truths.

Groom Dry Lake Air Force Station, popularly known as Area 51, indeed exists as an Above Top Secret exotic-technology research and development facility, operated by the Department of Naval Intelligence. You correctly criticize the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for upholding an Executive Order exempting Area 51 from environmental laws it reportedly broke, thereby exposing its workers to fatal toxics. It is time to end the abusive overuse of secrecy by a National Security state, spawned during a Cold War now supposedly over.

But the Bee's characterization of reports of UFOs and extraterrestrials at Area 51 as "ridiculous rumors" is absolutely false, and should be retracted. As a published researcher into extraterrestrial matters, I can assure you that ample evidence exists. At my suggestion ABC television news of Las Vegas went to the entranceway to Area 51 in December, 1992, and filmed a UFO flying out from the base right over their film crew. That footage was shown on the then ABC affiliate station in Sacramento, KOVR. And I have personally witnessed antigravity craft flown at Area 51. Furthermore, Michael Wolf, MD, Ph.D. of the National Security Council's classified MJ-12 subcommittee has described in his book, "Catchers of Heaven", working at Area 51 side by side with an extraterrestrial providing consultation on their exotic technology.

The Bee is correct that the government should stop abusing state secrecy to cover up environmental misdeeds. But the Bee itself owes it to its readers to stop mislabeling documented facts about UFOs and ETs at Area 51 as "ridiculous". As repeated public opinion polls show, it is the government's UFO Cover-Up that is ridiculous.
