Regarding "Ed Dames" - Latest First

Dames on Parade

The recent Dames' fiasco involving Philip Taylor Kramer is a perfect example of the reliability of 'remote viewing'. Dames woo'ed the public with tales of conspiracy and cover-up, and when the truth was discovered to be entirely mundane, he changed his story and declared victory. It amazes me that people still give this guy any credence whatsoever.

There sure is a lot of jealousy in the RV community

But that's to be expected when someone is at the top of their field or industry. I also noticed that none of the other remote viewers are willing to post their military records and that most of them run their businesses out of their homes while PSI TECH is located at the most exclusive office space on Maui with the DoD, military contractors, and the Air Force. PSI TECH is also spreading their technology into the hands of the public affordably. So who are the ones spreading the disinfo?

-- Jack 5/1/99 (#3)

Eddie should be prosecuted for treason

On Art Bell's recent show, bozo Dames had the audacity to claim publicly that he and his "buddies" at the NSA routinely withheld vital information from the White House, because, "We knew the President wasn't one of us, so we fed him only what we felt like." Don't know about you, but that's treason to the Chief Executive. This man is dangerous, a liar, and should be hanged for his crimes.

-- Bob Anderson 9/19/98 (#2)

Ed Dames, ONI disinformation agent at large!

Every time we amass evidence of government coverups, out trots Ed Dames and his "remote viewing" version of events that sanitizes things so that we can go back to sleep. Like TWA 800, the staggering amount of evidence from hundreds of civilian and military witnesses, points to a missile attack. Yet, here comes Dames and it now becomes a mechanical failure. There are other examples, to be sure, but what he represents is obvious to anyone with half a brain.
