Message from lotr 9 to all

Yes, this is the remnants of the message board

The message board accomplished what is set out to do. Most could care less that it's gone. Those in the "know" will miss it. The others won't until an unmistakable Sollog prophecy hits again. Now the world shall see the true power of Sollog's words.

Those who refuse to accept and believe what he says about man's origin and future may soon have the proof they've wanted. But unfortunately the proof may change life as we know it on the planet. It's in mankind's nature not to change unless forced to change. What a pity man hasn't learned his lessons and become more balanced with the universe as one.

How much more hate, killing and evil must be committed before change is made? Clinton is an icon representing this planet's current mindset. No morals, no conscience, no where to go but back to the beginning of the lesson. How many must die to save the future and this planet from total annihilation. An entire species of modern man is about to be terminated and spanked by daddy. To higher intelligence beyond our comprehension, this is merely a minute event in time. Who are we to question who and why someone dies and another lives? All is meant to be and the veiled will continue repeating this predictable human attitude.

Seems the only thing mankind listens and responds to is fear and crisis. So be it.

Instead of listening or at least considering what Sollog says, most choose to mock and deny the truth which has kept man deceived and enslaved. Because most are ignorant and have a retarded perception of truth, it's no wonder Sollog is usually not understood. Sollog writes allegorically and because Sollog doesn't conform to their literal way of thinking, everything he says appears to be gibberish. To someone who doesn't know what allegory is, Sollog would appear to be twisting events or making it up as he goes. The only way to judge a prophet is by the criteria upon which prophecy is judged. That criteria consists of analogies, anagrams, riddles, allegory, numerology, mythology, mirrored concepts and various other cryptic styles which all can never usually be understood literally or before the event. The clues and codes can be given prior to an event, but it is impossible to fully understand the prophecy until the riddle is either decoded or explained by the "author". Nostradamus isn't alive to confirm whether his quatrains and codes are being interpreted correctly. Sollog gives the clues and shows us where to look. When the prophecy occurs, Sollog gives the explanation on how the events connected and where to go to verify the facts. Sollog is the only prophet alive who is writing about the major events of our time period to show who he speaks for. No other has been as allegorically and many times literally accurate as Sollog has.

Most call him the false prophet we were warned of by the new testament and refuse to accept what he says about god yet these same hypocrits can't possibly know who or what god is to begin with...The bible itself was an analogy that has been corrupted through time...To take anything literally is dangerous and to believe such a man-made book on blind faith is why humans have been enslaved for so long...The church makes one look outside of themselves for truth and guidance...Such wisdom can only be found within....How many have said, "oh, god would never do this or that and fans of "god" would never act like that", or "god" is a loving god and would never hurt his children"...Only morons have such pathetic reasoning and thinking...The concept and source that most have of truth comes from mankind's truth and blind faith based upon a book where Jesus constantly contradicts the word of god. God's words though written by man, is supposed to be the law for humanity to live by for eternity. "Gods" own words in the old testament, says he is loving, jealous and enjoys in fear of the lord. So anyone who calls Sollog a liar because he repeats God's own words about fearing God and that God's wrath is about to be felt is the true liar in denial. Until Christians can give a logical factual counter-argument to Sollog's information, there is no argument or debate on the issue and no reason to believe his information is false since he has shown where to verify what he says is true.

Only brainwashed hypocrits who fear what they can't understand will mock and call Sollog crazy. And yes, Sollog is crazy,,, just as Nostradamus, Galileo and Einstein were also called and treated in such a manner by the ignorant humans of their time period.

But is Sollog real? Can he be the great genius and Celtic hero that Nostradamus foretold? The clues and pieces to the puzzle are given and available to those who choose to look deeper into the bigger picture. Some are born veiled and condemned never to see beyond their physical reality...What a shame and that is the illusion. We are being given the opportunity to seek truth in analogies and allegory. That is the method Sollog and nostradamus chose to reveal their warnings. The enlightened will see it. The fools will only mock it. Man has thousands of years to get it right...And look at how we've evolved...The majority are ignorant and have grown into a civilization that celebrates chaos. The negativity, hate, killing and destruction of life is at an all time high...This planets ying and yang is seriously out of balance which is a central reason humanity is on the brink of destruction. Just look around you, read the news and maybe you'll realize Sollog is absolutely right and may be better for the planet to be cleaned up! Is not religion the primary source of all wars????? Sollog has stated religion is the tool which has enslaved and brainwashed mankind...Nothing could be closer to the truth!! This planets theology is about to cause mankind's destruction because the foundation and root of civilization today is diseased! Hate and evil in the name of god! Nukes created to prevent war in the name of god. Anyone tired of hearing "my gods better than yours"? We are all one...Terminate all nukes now, move to the safezones or suffer the consequences...That is Sollogs message.

Who has said terrorism will occur on 9/16 and then it happened? Who gave the exact date and details of the oaklahoma city bombing before the event took place that then happened????? Who said goddess of the moon would die on the 31st connected to france and bizarrely the day diana died ~~just happened~~ to fall on the exact reverse of the date someone gave before the event???? Who said ides of novem would connect directly to clintons death symbolically or physical which was discussed and clues given to the meaning of ides of novem before the event???

No wonder Sollog and fans respond and act as they do with harsh replies to ignorance and utter stupidity..Who can blame them? Do they not have the right to defend themselves from lies and attacks from those who can't seem to support their cases with facts and who try to suppress and publically discredit a man trying to give an important warning?..The morons who send hate mail to Sollog et al and act in such evil manners deserve the attitude and tone that is reflected back...They reap what they sow...If nostradamus were alive, his words and quatrains would be on the internet just as Sollogs are and most likely would be acting in the same way whatshotin et al act to spread the warning of nukes. Sollog and nosty have proved from their track records that they know the future by hits that are prophetically accurate by the criteria prophecy should be judged...Yet how many fools still want to argue and measure prophecy literally??? How many still deny pure facts when Sollog prophesized that a tragedy would occur on new years eve that would take the life of a powerful man directly connected to jfk and that this tragedy would claim the life of this "kennedy" which he named as michael who would then die while playing football in the woods????????

What more do you want from prophecy??? Who else in history has been so prophetically accurate, has given perfect logical explanations that can be verified by anyone as well as from current events, and also revealed mathematics that scientifically work out and have not yet been disproven....Doesn't this tell you anything??? Wake up! What are you waiting for? Is it really necessary for his primary prophecies to come to pass before you see truth and realize that he's real or at least should be considered?

If he's lying, prove his facts wrong with solid evidence! If Jesus existed as the church claims prove it with undeniable evidence! If his mathematics don't work out prove it with cold hard facts. If Sollog is a fake, then this should be easy to do, yet no one to this day has given any logical counter-arguments that support their claims he's a crackpot and a fraud; the only pathetic evidence used to discredit him are "opinions", misinterpretations, assumptions, alleged uses of aliases, that he's "crazy", or alleged wild accusations with no proof or basis.

For once I'd would like to see someone show how technically and literally Pope John Paul means word for word line by line the exact same thing as Pope John Paul the Second! For once I'd like someone to prove that Sollog wasn't the one who faxed 60 in the media the warning they even spoke of that gave a date of 4/19/1995 for a big bang in the heart of America which gave the location and target as Alpha. For once I'd like to see someone show how all the facts in Cunanan's letter and Diana's death aren't true and perfectly connect to those events. Prove to me how 8/13 isn't the exact reverse of 31/8 and that Sollog never said a famous death was about to occur on that date keeping in mind throughout all his writings he ~~always~~ reverses the number 13 and dates of people's deaths that are said to be sacrifices to show who Sollog speaks for. Just once I'd like to see someone prove how Sollog didn't say a tragedy would occur on New Year's Eve connected to all the facts and clues he gave before the event in his prophecy for New Year's! Prove a sus scrofa isn't a pigskin aka football. Prove Michael Kennedy didn't die while playing with "his sus scrofa". Prove a tree isn't a "wood" or in the woods. Prove Micheal isn't a powerful man who died on Sollog's line on New Year's Eve! Prove a double decker is not a type of bus. Prove Sri Lanka isn't connected to the United Kingdom. Prove 1000 doesn't equal 831 in Kabbalah. Prove Diana wasn't known in mythology as goddess of the moon. And for once why can't someone prove how "ides" doesn't mean "middle of the month" in mythology, novem doesn't mean nine, le isn't the first two letters in Lewinsky, byrd isn't slang for bitch, that Sollog never directly explained before clintons ordeal that the ides of novem was about to strike clinton and the ides of novem meant the ninth month of ramadan in the muslim calendar that is equivalent to january of 1998!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Answer those questions or ask any rational person with intelligence and any idiot can see Sollog is no hoax from an allegorical perspective as a prophet! 900 Line psychics and alt prophecies nostradamus scum bags give literal truth, expect literal truth and can only interpret literal truth. True mystics/prophets/and seers usually write cryptically which requires deeper thought and eyes to see beyond what is physically accepted as truth!

As i understand it, Sollog has said a unique event or sign from the sky will occur between 4/4 and 4/17. When was the last time a major celestial event was in the news? It should be clear to those who know about Sollog when this event happens. The braindead fools will insist its jesus or another coincidence Sollog twisted and takes credit for. Yeah right,, and peter pan is real.

Will this mark the beginning of the age of nuclear terrorism where the enemy can't be recognized? Should zion melt in an instant? Who will be to blame when terrorists detonate the tower? Unfortunately many may be sacrificed to show Sollog is real...Maybe then mankind will listen...Maybe not.

Nostradamus said our path of destruction could be changed if we listened to the prophets. So what other has claimed and proved him/herself to be a prophet????????? Sollog is the only one...Cayce and nosty are deceased.

What do you call the prophet of prophets?

The penultimate prophet

The last word on prophecy.

Yes, michel d nostradam was acknowledging Sollogs word as the final word on any prophecy in century 2 quatrain 28

Those who have listened and understood, consider yourselves lucky...Many are called, few choose to listen. Many have been warned..Few have listened, many will die from ignorance and arrogance...Such is the plight of man.

It appears the countdown has begun

Something big is about to happen...Is it another big bang?

Everyone knows what Sollog has said about the first target of nuke terrorism. "Zion is no more"

Further information will be posted here, but now the morons that polluted this board and continue to corrupt minds have lost their access. A select few may find the secret url to continue with the discussion and be priveleged enough to see the wisdom preserved for as long as possible. Those who have the ~~key~~ to find this url should not give it out and will only receive it if they know how to find the location @ jupiter.

Sollogs words will be much sought after soon, but no one will be able to find them. Much wisdom has been shared on this board and it was originally created as a tribute to Sollog and to help others discuss and learn more about his warning interactively. I thank all those who contributed to honor Sollogs words and truly wanted to see his message exposed. Unfortunately it seems it will have to get ugly and many will die before Sollog will be taken seriously.

For those truly interested in finding out more about Sollog, are willing to open their minds or just have questions, you may email me at alxnin37@juno.com

Truth always prevails...That has been our weapon from day one. You can believe or you can mock. You can survive or you can perish. Following jesus will lead you to the slaughter. The light most humans see is false and the flame.

Words of wisdom:

A buddha needs no light, for he is master of light and dark.

Seek the root.

The root is past light and dark.

It is the one on three sides of the cube.

It creates all things within the illusion.

As Sollog said the signs and prophecies will become more and more clear...When zion is no more soon, will you still be in denial?

Mankind is at a crossroads and about to experience its greatest lesson. Future generations will learn from our mistakes. What nostradamus foresaw and Sollog has guaranteed is coming to pass whether you can see it or not. The truth is in front of your face but found within.

Jesus is not and never was a god! God said have no other gods before the almighty. Jesus said "i came not to bring peace". How much clearer can it be?

When nuke terrorism is unleashed shortly, remember who guaranteed it. When clinton dies physically or symbolically on 113 connected to ides of novem, remember who called it.

What Sollog has guaranteed may end life as we know it.

But it isn't the end...Its only the end of the beginning
