This is the last post that I will make on Sollog's Terrorism. To everyone who has sent me information and analysis about Ennis, who has explained the fallacies of his comments in the language of APN, and who has helped me write this, I thank you for your assistance. I have included many of your comments word for word, but was not able to read everything sent to me as it was too voluminous. But I will definately get to it since most of it is incredibly enlightening and encouraging! The effort to stop terrorism would seem to bring out some rather powerful ideas!

Anyone else who wants to modify or post this document in the future, please feel free to do so. But if the Sollog website is altered to clarify his positions, then I recommend that it not be posted anymore.

I hope that John Ennis can make the rather small change that is necessary so that his language no longer angers, hurts, and threatens the people of America. I also want to point out that I have been told that John Ennis is most likely not this persons real birth name, but I am going to use it anyway given the absence of anything else.

The following four phase's of John Ennis's language represent his ascendance into a realm of terrorism, and it is something that he most likely did not realize he would get into. The problem seems to be that Mr. Ennis does not want anyone to connect any of his statements together so that they can ascertain what he is about. It's like someone saying the following:

1. I will draw a line of terror upon America so that people will listen to me
2. I have the power to kill
3. The rape and murder of Jon Benet Ramsey fullfills my word and my line of terror
4. God had Jon Benet raped and murdered as part of his plan
5. I am god

and never seeming to connect any of these statements which clearly reveal that a person is claiming to be responsible for the rape and murder of Jon Benet Ramsey, and that it was done to serve his purpose. Of course we know that Ennis(Sollog) could not have been responsible for this, but anyone who makes statements to the effect, and tries to profit from it, is going to bring the wrath of decent people upon them. It's absolutely despicable behaviour that should be scorned by all. Ennis will have to decide which of his statements he wants to retract so that the connection to terrorism is broken.

The proof of John Ennis's ascendance into terrorism is in the pudding.

PHASE ONE(1995): John Ennis makes threats against the people of America by claiming to draw a line of tragedy on this evil nation, and he states that violent actions will be committed on HIS line of terror so that HIS word will be obeyed.

PROOF: The following quotes from John Ennis(a.k.a. Sollog) on The Sollog WebSite

1. I SHALL DRAW A LINE OF TRAGEDY ACROSS THE HEART OF THIS EVIL NATION!
2. It is to show that MY WORD MUST BE OBEYED!
3. ELIMINATE ALL NUKES NOW!
4. Hurricanes, Earthquakes, Volcanic eruptions, Plane Crashes, Acts of Terrorism and Bizarre Murders shall appear on MY LINE OF TRAGEDY!

PHASE TWO: John Ennis further solidifies the personal language used in HIS previous line of terror comments by claiming that HE has the power to slay entire nations, and he states that HE will destroy America with his word.

PROOF: Statements by John Ennis(a.k.a. Sollog) on the Jeff Rense radio show April 21st, 1997.

1. I am the story of the one who slays the nations.
2. I have the ability to slay the nations.
3. This nation will be destroyed by my word.

PHASE THREE: John Ennis claims that specific tragedies are part of HIS line of terror, including the rape and murder of Jon Benet Ramsey, the Columbine massacre, and other school shootings.

PROOF: The Sollog WebSite

PHASE FOUR: Using the ID of elnlne_@hotmail.com and other aliases, Sollog's message of violence is continuously spread in the alt.prophecies.nostradamus newsgroup with comments like the following:

so 13 DIED in the school shootings,,,,,,big F'in deal!!

and 6 BILLION of this generation will DIE to save 6 BILLION FUTURE GENERATIONS!

Even so called random acts of violence like these school shootings ARE PART OF THE PLAN TO TEACH MAN

So what if many children die to save BILLIONS OF HUMANS from nukes?

ANALYSIS: Ennis steps over the line into the world of terrorism by actually identifying real life human tragedies like the rape and murder of Jon Benet Ramsey that he says are part of his line of terror. With his previous comments having made it clear that he claims to be the one who has created the line of terrorist events across America, and that they are being legitimately carried out so that people will obey him, he is actually claiming responsibility for specific events by saying that they are part of HIS line of terror.

Most people agree that elnlne is Sollog is John Ennis. But even if this were not the case and it was true that some individual had decided to work on a near full time basis promoting Sollog in a violent terrorist manner, while not having any financial or personal association with Ennis, then Ennis is still severely irresponsible for not having clarified this matter. To do so would be simple: he could state on his website that the purveyors of hatred and violence are in no way associated with Sollog and that he does not support or embrace terrorism against innocent people for any purpose, and that he only claims to see tragic events, not to have any part in their occurrence as his past comments indicated.

Even if Sollog were camping out in a mud hut in South America, those who are running the Sollog website should have the directive to do what is right. Yet, none of this happens because one can only assume that Ennis actually endorses and embraces this behavior and language. Everything that elnlne says while ranting about Sollog is a clear example of Sollog until such a time as he renounces the tactics with a statement on his website. And the most tragic comments that elnlne has stated are those where he verifies what Ennis said earlier: terrorist actions like the rape, murder, and slaughter of children are being done so that people will obey HIS (Ennis/Sollog's) word.

The argument has also been made elnlne that god is everything, both good and evil. And Sollog claims to be the entire word of god. This doesn't seem likely for many reasons but the most obvious is that the only thing Sollog's words are associated with is terrorism, death, tragedy, and extreme abuse of individuals. Thus it is proven that Sollog is not THE word of god because his language is not balanced. He has nothing inspiring or positive to say, and clearly does not possess a blueprint for a better world.

Someone sent me an email that Sollog's blueprint for the future consist of two ideas: get rid of nuclear weapons and move into mud huts. "And for nearly all of history, humanity has been without nuclear weapons while at the same time people have been living in mud huts. Yet, there has never been anything closely approximating a golden age during this entire history. In fact, history is replete with reigns of near absolute tyranny and terrorism against good innocent people. To suggest that children should be raped and murdered so that people will return to such a past is absolute insanity. Nuclear weapons and mud huts can not be a blueprint for the future."

All indications are that if Sollog is a conduit for a supernatural force, then that supernatural force is one of evil. But I personally doubt that as well.

However, I have also received information about Ennis's past that indicates he should be given a chance to change his language. Indications are that he was reasonably well educated in mathematics and theology, was interested in peace and was an aspiring prophet(profit) on a path towards developing and using his extrasensory capabilities. Somewhere along the way that effort went wrong, and as a result he managed to threaten, offend, and anger many people, some of whom may now be hunting him down.

No one should ever make their viewpoint on terrorism ambiguous, and particularly when they are speaking about specific tragedies that have befall people. The connected phases of Mr. Ennis's language point out an obvious trajectory towards validated terrorism against innocent people, including children. And for what? To force people to return to a past of mud huts and hatchets that is still beset by absolute tyranny and terrorism. Perhaps a statement at the top of the Sollog WebSite disclaiming terrorist acts, and pointing out the obvious cruelty of such acts, would sooth the feelings of those who have been threatened, angered, or hurt by him, and redeem him as an aspiring prophet rather than a terrorist possessed of evil.
