Regarding "John Ennis" - Latest First

Basic Research

Anti-sollogites have a low IQ. It is reported with great glee that there has been a mistake and now you have proof that L9 and Sollog are the same. Check the history. You'll see that the poster and L9 are not the same. I expect very little in terms of investigative skills and intelligence from Americans who are brought up on the Jerry Springer show and WWF as a serious sport. The anti-Sollog posts show just how limited Americans' brains are.

What Happened To Ennis?

Ennis posted each days for years in APN and we have not heard of him or any of his other aliases since 2 months now. There are rumors that he might be dead or in a mental institution for his own safety. Others rumors says that he might have been arrested and/or banned from any free news/mail services and he does not want to post from his original ISP by fear of messages sent to the "abuse" address included in his headers.

-- MarsRules 12/27/99 (#3)

Headers

About 70% of all headers have that information. :) Viewing the x-trace or x-nntp-posting-host headers will reveal he is currently posting from Concentric.net in Florida.

-- gollos (gollos@my-deja.com) 11/3/99 (#2)

new ennis aliases

Andy Rosen or rose, Prophet of the chosen ones, Martha Stewart. When ennis post to usenet all his messages headers contains (Win95, I).
